

BLIND SCRIPT V2

Hurry up or we'll be late.

We both know that just won't do.

It's a bit more complicated than I thought.

No time for anything fancy.

Let me take my time with this.

You wouldn't understand.

And keep your voice down. We don't want to give the game away.

You haven't done this before have you?

How hard can it be?

How do you stop your hands from shaking?

There's so much to think about.

It's all gone very quiet out there.

Do you think someone knows?

Erm... no, I'm sure they have no idea.

Right, nearly there.

Just another two more seconds...

End this your own way...
